Welcome to Oslo

The Green City

Stirring up visions of burly Norsemen, enchanted forests and Nordic princesses, Norway's capital offers all that and then some. Located at the head of an inlet known as the Oslofjord and at the foot of some deep and enchanting woods, Oslo is surrounded in nature, connecting this modern and progressive city inextricably to its Viking past.

Ninety-five percent of Norway is covered by forest with more than seventy percent consisting of mountains, lakes, moorland and glaciers, the likely reason why Norwegian adoration of nature is a vital ingredient in the country's national identity. Even in the city center, the nearest park is never more than a few blocks away.

Many of Oslo's attractions can be explored on foot from the docks, with Downtown an easy 20-minute walk. And not only is the city home to some fascinating and enlightening museums and architecture, it can also boast the title of the gourmet capital of Scandinavia.

The combination of city life and easy access to outdoor activities makes Oslo a unique destination. Norway has been producing great explorers ever since the Viking Age, so here's your chance to admire the vessels and equipment used in some of their great journeys and do some exploration of your own.

SAFETY ASHORE INFORMATION

While you will find many great experiences ashore, please remain vigilant about your personal safety and the safety of your belongings. As in any large urban tourist destination, you'll want to take some basic precautions to make the most of your time ashore.

- Be aware of your surroundings at all times. Avoid short cuts, narrow alleys and poorly lit streets.
- Avoid wandering from the main shopping and tourist areas into unfamiliar territory. If venturing out independently, have a plan, use only licensed taxi operators.
- Identity/Credit Card theft can occur anywhere. Please remain vigilant in monitoring the safe keeping of your personal information.
- Leave valuables in your room safe and avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Exercise caution when using ATMs. Cameras and handbags should be carried close to your body or concealed out of sight.
- Leave air transportation tickets and other travel documents in your room safe. When going ashore, each adult is required to carry a Driver's license, passport or other government-issued photo ID.
Note: Some ports may require guests to carry passports ashore.
- Most crimes are easier to commit in dark unlit areas. When going ashore at night, please be extra vigilant about your personal safety.

OSLO OVERVIEW

The very long and narrow country of Norway reaches so far north that the Arctic Circle runs about halfway between its southernmost and northern most points. Ninety-five percent of Norway is covered by forest with more than seventy percent consisting of mountains, lakes, moorland and 1,700 glaciers. Known as the Viking Capital, Oslo is surrounded by magnificent scenery from the majestic fjord it rests upon to the vast forest covered hills. While the fjord contains 40 islands, there are 343 lakes within the city's limits. A very friendly and welcoming people, the Norwegians enjoy a low crime rate and a clean environment. Oslo's population of 593,045 (2010) is mostly comprised of native Norwegians and other Europeans.

Oslo's history goes back to the Viking age when fierce Norsemen set out over the Atlantic to conquer Iceland, England, Ireland and North America. Though dramatic, Viking dominance was short lived, and at the turn of the 10th century, a settlement was built at the end of the Oslo Fjord. During the 11th century, this settlement grew into the medieval city of Oslo, and later, during the Middle Ages, came under the rule of Denmark and Sweden. A Norwegian identity was finally established and Norway gained its sovereignty in 1905 when a king was chosen by referendum. A constitutional monarchy, Norway is today a very modern and highly industrialized nation.

Akershus Fortress

Built around 1300, this medieval fortress and castle is currently used during the summer for concerts, dances and theatrical productions. There is an information center located directly inside the main gate that includes a history display on the fortress. The Akershus Castle date back to the 17th century, and was renovated into a Renaissance palace by Christian IV. Royal events are still conducted in the chapel and the tombs of King Hakon VII and Olav V are located beneath it. There is an admission fee to take a tour of the castle, which is lead by university students in period costume, or you can stroll around on your own.

Royal Palace

Located at the end of Karl Johans gate, the Royal Palace is the residence of the King of Norway. The palace grounds are open to the public and the Changing of the Guard takes place daily at 1:30 p.m. The palace itself does not allow public access.

Hollmenkollen Ski Tower

Approximately six miles from the cruise ship pier, the Hollmenkollen Ski Tower is located in the suburbs of Oslo's western hills. It was used for the Winter Olympic Games in 1952 and was the original site for ski jumping in 1892.

ONLY THE STORES LISTED ON THIS MAP

VAT Refund Program Value Added Tax (VAT) is a tax refund program in which non-European Union citizens may be entitled to reclaim a portion or all of the tax paid for items purchased in participating stores. Each store's participation in the VAT refund program is discretionary. In most cases, VAT is already added to the purchase price. Please note that regulations and conditions governing the refund of VAT are subject to change. It is the responsibility of the cruise ship Guest to inquire about a store's VAT refund program participation and if their purchase qualifies. Safety Ashore Information

While you will find many great experiences ashore, please remain vigilant about your personal safety and the safety of your belongings. As in any large urban tourist destination, you'll want to take some basic precautions to make the most of your time ashore.

- Be aware of your surroundings at all times. Avoid short cuts, narrow alleys and poorly lit streets.
- Avoid wandering from the main shopping and tourist areas into unfamiliar territory. If venturing out independently, have a plan, use only licensed taxi operators.
- Identity/Credit Card theft can occur anywhere. Please remain vigilant in monitoring the safe keeping of your personal information.
- Leave valuables in your room safe and avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Exercise caution when using ATMs. Cameras and handbags should be carried close to your body or concealed out of sight.
- Leave air transportation tickets and other travel documents in your room safe. When going ashore, each adult is required to carry a Driver's license, passport or other government-issued photo ID. – Note: Some ports may require guests to carry passports ashore.
- Most crimes are easier to commit in dark unlit areas. When going ashore at night, please be extra vigilant about your personal safety.
